

IRON MOUNTAIN

There's a treasure in that vault
That you're afraid to share.
Rock hard, mile thick walls
Just show how much you care.

You're an iron mountain
The original man of steel
You never let them see you hurt
Or know just how you feel

You're an iron mountain
Unmoved by dynamite
You're an iron mountain
Standing tall and lonesome
Casting shadows in the light.

You don't need a dragon
To chase fools like me away.
I set up camp, laid siege, and starved
Finally packed it in today.

Cause you're an iron mountain
The original man of steel
You never let them see you hurt
Or know just how you feel

You're an iron mountain
Unmoved by dynamite
You're an iron mountain
Standing tall and lonesome
Frozen in the night.
